

Wayward Child, A Collection of Poetry

There Is No One Else To Blame

In hell you will open up your eyes;
and you will soon realize.
That there is no turning back again;
You chose to stay in your sin.

You can't say nobody ever cared;
Of God's wrath, you had no fear.
You chose to live your life without Christ;
You chose alcohol and dice.

You had a chance to turn from your sin;
But you wouldn't turn to Him.
To you, He offered His Salvation.
You hardened your heart again.

You can't say nobody ever prayed;
You were taught, but you played.
You believed a lie and not the truth;
You were trapped in your drug use.

Your mother shed tears and grew older;
Wanting a son to uphold her
You were taught with a bible in hand;
But you chose life's sinking sands.

With tears, distraught, a mother still cries;
because her wayward son died.
Oh, what pain you left behind and grief;
Death was sudden like a thief.

God gave you many chances, but then-
You still died within your sin.
Now you beg from hells torment and flame;
There is no one else to blame.
